PAPER OUTLINE & REQUIRMENTS

Research essay outline:

Title: The European Union in the time of crisis: challenges and opportunities

This paper shall try to explore the challenges that Euro crisis (2009-till present) has brought about to the European integration as well as the opportunities it provided for revising the extant institutional framework.

The research paper will provide a reader with the background of the crisis, case of Greece and EU's response to the crisis, major changes in the institutional framework of European economic governance that may reinforce further economic and political integration in the EU. Also, the paper will address the issues of uncertain future of the European currency and Euro area and the whole European Union in general.

Paper Requirements:

Your work will be judged on the basis of the quality of your presentation of the relevant theoretical literature, as well as on the critical understanding and the intellectual creativity which you demonstrate in using this. Each paper should be approximately 3500 words in length including references and annexes. All papers should be typed (word-processed as WORD or PDF file) and double-spaced. Please leave broad margins on both sides (4 cm). Essay must be properly referenced, with a standard form of citation used. You must also include a bibliography of all works consulted. All written contributions need to be original, i.e. produced exclusively by the student who submits the work. References to all other sources must be clearly indicated following accepted academic standards. Any text reproduction which is not clearly identified will have to be considered as plagiarism and, consequently, the submitted work will be acknowledged with no more than 0% of the mark. For further information, please do not hesitate to consult with the instructors. The deadline for submission of the final paper is January 1, 2016, midnight CET.