

THE CANTICLE OF BROTHER SUN

Most High, all-powerful, good Lord,

Yours are the praises, the glory, and the honor, and all blessing,<sup>1</sup>
To You alone, Most High, do they belong,
and no human is worthy to mention Your name.

Praised be You, my Lord, with all Your creatures,
especially Sir Brother Sun,

5

Who is the day and through whom You give us light.
And he is beautiful and radiant with great splendor;
and bears a likeness of You, Most High One.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Moon and the stars,<sup>2</sup> in heaven You formed them clear and precious and beautiful.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Wind, and through the air, cloudy and serene, and every kind of weather, through whom You give sustenance to Your creatures.

Praised be You, my Lord, through Sister Water,<sup>3</sup> who is very useful and humble and precious and chaste.

15

Praised be You, my Lord, through Brother Fire,<sup>4</sup> through whom You light the night,<sup>5</sup>

and he is beautiful and playful and robust and strong.

Praised be You, my Lord, through our Sister Mother Earth,<sup>6</sup> who sustains and governs us,

and who produces various fruit with colored flowers and herbs.<sup>7</sup>

Praised be You, my Lord, through those who give pardon for Your love, and bear infirmity and tribulation.

Blessed are those who endure in peace

25

for by You, Most High, shall they be crowned.

Praised be You, my Lord, through our Sister Bodily Death, from whom no one living can escape.

Woe to those who die in mortal sin.

Blessed are those whom death will find in Your most holy will,
for the second death shall do them no harm.<sup>8</sup>

30

Praise and bless my Lord and give Him thanks<sup>9</sup>
and serve Him with great humility.

FROM Francis of Assisi, Early Documents, vol. 1: The Saint, ed. Regis J. Armstrong, J. A. Wayne Helman, and William J. Short. The translation's verse numbers and Bible citations have been omitted. Italicized type corresponding to the citations has been made roman.

1. See Revelation 4:9, 11.

2. See Psalms 148:3. "Through": Here, Francis used the Italian preposition per, which could also mean "for." Thus, the line could be giving thanks "for Sister Moon and the stars." Some translators use "through" to reflect the biblical idea that all creation praises God.

3. See Psalms 148:4.

4. See the Song of the Three Young Men, verse 44.

5. See Psalms 78:14.
