Hi, Riffat,

I'm Kamij, your writing tutor for this assignment. I have reviewed your submission and have a few suggestions that will help you revise. Please feel free to contact us through a live chat session with any follow-up questions or for any clarification.

Below, you will find a revision plan along with margin comments within your paper. Use my suggestions as a starting point for the revision process. Also, please note that I have not edited or proofread the entire draft for minor errors, but rather, focused on overall concerns such as idea development. For a complete look at your grammar and punctuation, please use the Grammarly software available under "Writing Center" in your classroom.

For your revisions, I suggest focusing on:

1. Include a thesis statement. Currently, your paper reads like a book report about foreign policy. A thesis is needed to direct the purpose of the paper. The thesis statement should include the problem, your proposed solution to that societal problem, and include the ethical outcomes of the solution. Take a look at the sample paper for an example of the thesis statement: <https://bridgepoint.equella.ecollege.com/curriculum/file/aab540bd-81bd-495c-8ff1-f2bd>

2. Be sure to cover all material required by the prompt. This prompt is a complicated one, to be sure. If you carefully break down the prompt, you will see that it is asking for you to:

- a. discuss the problem,
- b. propose a solution to the problem,
- c. evaluate the validity, reliability, and biases of the sources you used in addition to pointing out where more research is needed, and
- d. show ethical implications of your proposed solution.

3. Develop your paragraphs more. Your paragraphs are presenting information, but they do not seem to "say" anything. Each paragraph should develop the argument for your solution to the problem. In general, all paragraphs need to have 3 pieces:

P-Point—also known as your topic sentence where you state what the paragraph is about

I-Information—where you present your information (facts, details, quotes, and reasons)

E-Explanation—where you explain the relevance or importance of your information

Please be sure to do all of this when writing your paragraphs. For help with this, check out this video tutorial on writing paragraphs: <https://bridgepoint.equella.ecollege.com/curriculum/file/c4d3cddf-9fd7-4dc2-92bf-c2e107915c9f/>

Good luck in the course, and I hope we can help you with your next assignment.
